A festival from my region

Task: write an email (120-150 words) to a pen pal from Canada describing a traditional festival from your region, such as Inti Raymi or the Fiesta de la Candelaria. Use the simple present and at least five time expressions.

Your email must include:

1. A greeting and a short introduction about yourself.
2. The name of the festival, and where and when people celebrate it.
3. Three things people do during the festival: food, music, dances or clothes.
4. What you and your family usually do that day.
5. A question for your pen pal and a farewell.

Language checklist: the simple present in affirmative, negative and question forms; at least five time expressions (every year, in June, usually, always, on the first day); at least three connectors (and, but, because).

Assessment criteria (20 points):

- Content and organization: 6 points.
- Simple present: 6 points.
- Time expressions and vocabulary: 4 points.
- Spelling and punctuation: 4 points.

Format and deadline: typed, 120-150 words. Write the word count at the end. Send it next Monday through the virtual classroom.
